

PY1 Units of Inquiry
2020/2021

Theme	Who We Are	Where We Are in Place and Time	How We Express Ourselves	How the World Works	Sharing the Planet	How We Organize Ourselves
Central Idea	Relationships are affected by the actions we take and the choices we make	Public places serve the needs of a community.	People communicate ideas, feelings and experiences through visual art.	The properties of a material determine its use.	Water is a resource the Earth provides	Food travels and goes through various processes before it reaches our table
Lines of Inquiry	*Different types of relationships *Factors that contribute to maintaining healthy relationships *The consequences of our choices	*How public places are organised to serve the needs of a community *People use public places for different purposes *Shared spaces need to be used appropriately by members of a community	*Art as a means of communication and expression *Strategies which help artists express themselves *The relationship between the artist and the audience	*Behaviour and uses of materials *Changing properties of materials *Manipulation of materials for specific purposes	*Where water comes from *Access to clean water *Conserving water	*Sources of primary products *The stages a product may go through before reaching the end user *The people and tools involved in food production/processing
Concepts	form, connection, responsibility	function, responsibility, perspective	form, perspective	form, function, change	causation, connection, responsibility	function, change, connection
Learner Profile Attributes	caring, principled	caring, reflective	communicator, risk-taker	thinker, inquirer	knowledgeable, caring principled,	inquirers knowledgeable
Approaches to Learning	*Social skills *Self-management skills	*Social skills *Self-management skills *Research skills *Communication skills *Thinking skills	*Self-management skills *Research skills *Communication skills	*Self-management skills *Thinking *Research skills *Social skills	*Self-management skills *Research skills *Communication skills *Thinking skills	Research Skills Social Skills